Apps that deals with Real Estate, Pseudonym

Since I can't share the app's name due to confidentiality, I'll share my experience with it. I've helped develop multiple real estate mobile apps, mainly in North America. My tasks involved linking services like MLS for property info and using tools such as Hover and EagleView for precise measurements.

Apps that works like Uber, Pseudonym

Since I can't share the app's name due to confidentiality, I'll share my experience with it. I've also helped develop multiple ride-sharing apps, focusing on various aspects such as user experience, backend functionality, and integration of third-party services.

Social Boost

This small personal project I undertook utilized React for the frontend and Node.js with Express for the backend. With this application, users can create and schedule posts for multiple social media platforms simultaneously. Additionally, they can manage their posts through marketing campaigns. The app also facilitates SMS and automated calls for marketing purposes and collecting user surveys.
